BLIZM-The Dangerous Unc

Adult hip-hop powered by experience, sharp lyricism, and soulful sound.

BLIZM is a veteran Hip-Hop artist, producer, and media pioneer whose career is rooted in independence and longevity. Founder of Chainless Entertainment and award-winning digital platform K-100 Radio, he spent years amplifying indie voices before returning to the mic in 2026 with The Dangerous Unc, his first full-length album in over 15 years. Blending soulful production, melodic hooks, and grown-man perspective, the project speaks directly to the adult contemporary Hip-Hop listener.

Led by the single “Clean Up Nice,” BLIZM embraces experience, confidence, and authenticity-delivering sharp lyricism, vivid storytelling, and a reminder that real artistry only gets better with time.

Artist Bio

BLIZM is a Hip-Hop artist, producer, audio engineer, and media visionary whose career has been built on independence, longevity, and purpose. As the founder of Chainless Entertainment and K-100 Radio, he has spent decades shaping culture both behind the mic and behind the scenes.

In 1999, BLIZM launched Chainless Entertainment, an independent label that has since released seven full-length albums along with numerous singles and visuals, cementing his reputation as a self-made creative with a sharp ear and an even sharper pen. Never content with existing lanes, BLIZM recognized the lack of media platforms for independent artists and answered the call by founding K-100 Radio in 2012. The live-streaming digital broadcast—complete with a standalone app and website—quickly became a trailblazing outlet for indie voices, earning multiple awards and industry recognition.

Now in 2026, after an extended hiatus from releasing music while focusing on building the broadcast, BLIZM returns to where it all began: the art. His upcoming album, The Dangerous Unc, marks his first full-length LP in over 15 years—and it's a statement.

Driven by soulful production, melodic hooks, and lived-in perspective, The Dangerous Unc captures the evolution of the man BLIZM has become while reminding listeners that his lyricism remains razor sharp. The lead single, "Clean Up Nice," sets the tone with grown-and-sexy energy tailored for the adult contemporary hip-hop listener. Embracing his age, experience, and status, BLIZM delivers grown-man music rooted in authenticity and rich with wordplay, storytelling, and confidence earned over time.
